POSITIVE PARAGRAPHS FROM BOYLES

No. 6 Being Some Truths About a College With a Personal Interest That Interests Persona. If it's true that to a certain extent a Stenographer, Bookeeper or Telegrapher is what the business college makes him or her, it is also just as true that the business college is what its pupils make it.

Now that you have theroughly made up your mind, or half made up your mind, to take up a Stenographic, Bookkeeping or Telegraphy Course in some college, and also have the college.

THE MID-WINTER TERM AT BOYLES' COLLEGE OPENS TUESDAY, JANUARY 2D

It is time for us to bring to your attention some of the peculiar and individual personal advantages that Boyles College holds out to you—to emphasize some of the points of superiority that Boyles College possesses over every other business college in this section of the country.

First and foremost is the one fact that can't be dodged—and that is that Boyles College is the one and only college in Nebraska that has erected an entire building to be devoted solely and wholly to business college purposes and is today occupying every inch of that building for business college purposes. Boyles College is the only college in this section of the country that possesses the true university atmosphere.

The Boyles building has been pronounced by competent critics to be the ideal business college building of he United States—combining as it does an airlness and a clear light in every room that adds to the comfort and learning ability of every student, with the additional feature of a gymnasium fully equipped with all necessary apparatus, including the shower hath, etc. The modern tone of the building is expressed most forcibly in its social life, where a point is made to give a high clars entertainment every few weeks free to the entire school, at which time the college orchestra renders popular and classic selections and talented students of the college are permitted to take part. This is also demonstrated by our practice of bringing all the students together for a social hour each day at which time all are invited to meet in the gymnasium for musical entertuinment and social intercourse.

The tone of Boyles College instruction is responsible for the high tone of its students. This is responsible for the decision of many parents to select Boyles College above all others.

Send for free catalogue or call.
